

Information Literacy Modules for Research Apprentice Program (RAP) 200-300 Level

	UW-W Information Literacy Questions Addressing WAAL Information Literacy Competencies	Build Background Knowledge	Evaluate Source Reliability (under development)	Identify Scholarly Sources	Understand the Peer Review Process	Identify Research Articles	Manage and Share References	Begin the Search (under development)	Format Citations Accurately
I. Building Foundational Research Across the Curriculum	2. Do you know what type of information would answer a research question and what sources may contain that information?		✓	✓		✓
	3. Can you break down a research question into searchable concepts and efficiently use a resource's search features to improve your search results?	✓
	4. Can you understand and evaluate search results, and then select relevant, credible sources from them?		✓	✓
	5. Do you know how to find and retrieve information that is available online or through your library as well as information that is not immediately available?
	8. Do you know when your research techniques are efficient and productive, and do you know when and where to ask for help?
II. Building Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills	6. Can you critically evaluate information retrieved from your research?			✓
	7. Can you organize, combine, and apply information to address your researchable question?						✓
III. Discovering unfamiliar and diverse ideas, cultures and communities	9. Do you understand how scholarly and popular information is produced, and that it is organized and distributed differently in various subject areas?			✓	✓
	10. Do you respect copyright, know when and how to cite sources, and understand the social and political issues affecting information?						✓		✓