College Excellence and Honors

The Institute of Management Accountants once again earns the IMA Gold Certificate of Excellence. UW-Whitewater was one of just four universities in the nation to achieve this high honor.

The College of Business and Economics partnered with Ireland-based Kerry to enhance student engagement, internships, recruitment, faculty/staff engagement, university financial support and continued learning.

For the first time ever, UW-Whitewater won the regional College Fed Challenge held in Chicago, and advanced to the national event in Washington, D.C. to compete with Harvard University, Princeton University, Pace University and Virginia Commonwealth University. UW-Whitewater is the first Wisconsin university to advance to the national level.
