Transfer Agreement Between
Madison College
Liberal Arts Transfer Program
and
University of Wisconsin – Whitewater

Madison College offers the two-year Liberal Arts Transfer Program. University of Wisconsin – Whitewater is a nearby public university offering baccalaureate degree programs. Both institutions recognize the mutual benefit of encouraging students who attend Madison College in the Liberal Arts Transfer Program and who plan to transfer to UW-Whitewater to complete baccalaureate degrees. Research shows that a student who establishes degree completion goals early with a clear plan is more likely to complete a bachelor's degree. By participating in this agreement, both Madison College and UW-Whitewater enhance support for the outcome.

This agreement provides guaranteed admission to UW-Whitewater for students who participate in the Liberal Arts Transfer Program at Madison College, who earn an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree, and who meet the requirements detailed below.

Eligibility for Participation

1. Complete an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree at Madison College. This agreement does not apply to students who previously attended UW-Whitewater.
2. Earn a minimum 2.0 GPA for all coursework, including Madison College coursework. UW-Whitewater will compute GPA based on all transferable work including all grades. Therefore, if a student has completed transferable course work outside of the Madison College Liberal Arts Transfer Program, the coursework will be included in the GPA calculation. UW-Whitewater's repeat policy states "A course in which a grade of C- or below was originally earned may be repeated once for grade and earned credit replacement. The grade and credits earned for the repeated course will replace those earned in the initial attempt when calculating grade point average and credits towards degree." Coursework completed at one transfer institution and repeated at a second transfer institution is recognized when calculating the transfer grade point average during the admission process. Students who intend to transfer to UW-Whitewater and wish to repeat courses should contact the Office of Admissions for further details or familiarize themselves with the repeat policy section of the Undergraduate Catalog. Grades earned at other institutions are considered only for purposes of determining eligibility for admission to the University and eligibility for registration in certain majors. Some UW-Whitewater programs require higher grade point averages for admission. Additional information regarding GPA requirements for specific programs can be found in the Undergraduate Catalog or by contacting the UW-Whitewater Admissions Office.

4. Complete the application for transfer admission to UW-Whitewater, including all supporting documentation, according to the regular admissions schedule for the planned term of entry to UW-Whitewater.

Transfer Credit

1. An Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree from Madison College will be considered to have fulfilled all of UW-Whitewater's general education requirements with the exception of the U.S. Racial/Ethnic Diversity requirement. Although the Associates degrees satisfy all General Education requirements, there may be additional courses required to meet degree and/or major/minor requirements. Madison College courses listed in Appendix A satisfy the U.S. Racial/Ethnic Diversity requirement at UW-Whitewater.

2. UW-Whitewater will accept a maximum of 72 credits from a two-year institution.

3. Students must meet the residency requirement of a minimum of 30 credits earned at UW-Whitewater to qualify for an undergraduate degree. At least 15 of these 30 credits must be taken at UW-Whitewater immediately prior to graduation.
