

ELECTION 2024

LOOKING BACK AND AHEAD

Every four years, Americans head to the polls to vote for the candidates of their choice. Some say that the 2024 election is the most consequential in our lifetime. Join us this fall for a series of lectures that reflects back on politicians, presidents and issues from the past, and forecasts what may be in store for 2025 and beyond.

Lectures are held on Mondays at 3 p.m. in Olm Fellowship Hall of Fairhaven Senior Services, 435 West Starin Road, Whitewater. All lectures are free and open to the public.

More information, links to video, and updates can be found at uww.edu/ce/fairhaven and facebook.com/UWWFairhavenLecture.

If you have a disability and desire accommodations, please advise us as early as possible. Requests are confidential. UW-Whitewater provides equal opportunities in employment and programming including Title IX and ADA requirements. Please contact Kari Borne at 262-472-1003 or bornek@uww.edu for further information.

SEPTEMBER

- 23 A Look at Key 2024 Congressional Elections
Susan Johnson, associate professor, Politics, Government, and Law
- 30 The Founding Fathers Did Not Trust You: A Look at the Electoral College
David McKay, senior lecturer, History

OCTOBER

- 7 Presidential influence on the Supreme Court of the United States: The Trump Effect
Jolly Emrey, associate professor, Politics, Government, and Law
- 14 The Politics of News
Keith Zukas, associate professor, Communication
- 21 The Difference a Map Can Make
Jonah Ralston, associate professor, Politics, Government, and Law
- 28 Election 2024: What to Expect (opinion polling, etc.)
Eric Loepp, associate professor, Politics, Government, and Law

NOVEMBER

- 4 Attacks, Acclaims, and Defenses in the Historic 2024 U.S. Presidential Debates
Corey Davis, professor, Communication
- 11 Recap of the 2024 Election Results
Join Susan Johnson, Jolly Emrey, and Eric Loepp for a discussion an analysis of the election results from state and federal races.
Faculty Panel from the Department of Politics, Government, and Law

