

BIAS-FREE ENVIRONMENT

RESPONSIBLE UW WHITEWATER PERSONNEL:

Chief Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Officer Office of the Chancellor

SCOPE:

This policy applies to all UW-Whitewater students, faculty, staff, and guests

POLICY STATEMENT:

UW-Whitewater ("University") is committed to providing a campus environment and community that is free from hate, bias, discrimination, harassment and retaliation. The University promotes and encourages equity, justice, inclusion, diversity and community through a respectful, open-minded and free exchange of ideas and opinions. The University fosters an environment in which all community members are respected, valued, and equally able to pursue their individual goals, whether it be an education or employment.

The University has developed a Hate-Bias Reporting Policy and online reporting form in which individuals may report hate-bias incidents. Anyone who believes they have been subject to or have witnessed any form of hate, bias, discrimination, harassment or retaliation should submit the form below and/or contact the Dean of Students Office in Andersen Suite 2130, 262-472-1533 or:

Dr. Kenny E. Yarbrough
Chief Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Officer
Office of the Chancellor
Hyer Hall, Room 425
262-472-1910
