View Award Summary

The screenshot shows the Financial Aid portal interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Student Home' (circled in blue), 'Financial Aid', and utility icons. Below the navigation bar, the current academic year is set to '2021-2022' with a 'Change' button. A left-hand sidebar contains various menu items, with 'Summary' highlighted in green. The main content area is titled 'Award Summary' and displays a table of financial aid awards. The table has three columns: 'Award Description/Category', 'Award Status', and 'Net Award'. The table lists five rows of awards, all with a status of 'Accepted'. A 'Totals' row at the bottom shows a net award of 14,969.00. Below the table, there is a note about the currency used (US Dollar) and a link for 'Account Balance'. A paragraph explains that the financial aid award is determined by application information and details like Academic Level, Enrollment Level, Housing, Residency, and Campus. It also provides information for students with no financial aid displayed and a note about reporting changes to the Financial Aid office. Finally, it states that by accepting the award electronically, the student agrees to the terms provided in the 'Award Letter Information'.

Calculate your financial need

- Subtract the term financial aid from the term costs to determine your financial need

Are You Financially Ready for College?

Step 1: Calculate Your Financial Need

1. Identify Cost of Attendance (COA)
Estimate obtained from cost.uww.edu
2. Subtract Financial Aid Awarded
Located in WINS under Student Home (Exclude Work Study) -
3. Calculate Financial Need
COA (1) - Financial Aid (2) = Financial Need =

Step 2: Funding Your Financial Need

- 01 SAVINGS
Determine savings contributions to be applied towards college expenses. Communicate with parents and others who may be willing to contribute. This includes any 529 savings plan accounts.
- 02 SCHOLARSHIPS
Applications for additional scholarships are encouraged. The UW-W Financial Aid Office website contains many links and resources for additional scholarships.
- 03 EMPLOYMENT
Working during the summer and academic year will help defray education costs. Utilize Handshake, UW-W's online job board, for current job postings.
- 04 PLUS LOAN
Parents can apply for a Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan if a financial need still exists. Refer to the UW-W Financial Aid Office website for questions and application information.
- 05 ALT LOANS
Alternative (or private) loans are available through financial institutions. Students may need a co-signer. The UW-W Financial Aid Office website has application information available.

Step 3: Still Have A Financial Need?
Contact the following UW-W departments with additional financial questions and concerns.
