

Make a Difference as a School Counselor

UW-Whitewater's new post-master's certificate program is designed for education professionals who want to focus on student mental health and systemic change

Educator to School Counselor Post-Master's Certificate

- For individuals with any master's degree, designed for those with experience in education
- 21-25 credits total
- Minimum of one year to complete: June - May, including summer and winterim terms
- Primarily asynchronous online coursework, with a few brief in-person learning experiences
- Internship in a K-12 setting
- Flexible schedule for busy professionals

Join us for a virtual info session!

Tues, 2/28, 6-7 pm

Register here or scan:

For more information, contact the School of Graduate Studies at gradeuww.edu.