

From teaching practices to embracing a culture of diversity to work-life balance, the values and beliefs of faculty impact students, administrators, and institutions.

Faculty love what they do!

75%
Satisfied overall with their job

63% Satisfied with health benefits

72% Satisfied with retirement benefits

Although feelings on salary are mixed.

37%
Unsatisfied

63%
Satisfied

49% have taught an online course and many integrate technology into the classroom.

91%
Use YouTube or other Videos

70%
Use online discussion boards

57%
Use simulations or animations

Most engage their classes with student-centered teaching methods.

98%
Incorporate class discussions

96%
Assign group projects

94%
Use student inquiry
to drive learning

88%
Use cooperative small group learning

But... 85%
Still use extensive lecturing in all or most of their classes

And while 36% of faculty feel at odds with the administration...

73%
Believe faculty concerns are considered when making policy

68%
Believe they are sufficiently involved in campus decision-making

And stress is present in many forms ...

90%
Self-imposed high expectations

79% Lack of personal time

75%
Teaching Load

Most faculty would choose their job all over again.

86%
Would still want to work as a college professor

76%
Would still want to work at their current institution

Diversity matters to faculty.

64%
Incorporate readings on racial and ethnic issues in their curriculum

79%
Feel that their campus has effective hiring practices and policies that increase faculty diversity

42%
Believe they are prepared to deal with diversity issues in the classroom