Hispanic Heritage Month

National Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated from September 15-October 15 this year. So it's a good time to remember that the Library has books in Spanish, particularly in the Curriculum Collection Easy and Fiction sections. These books are used by College of Education & Professional Studies students, especially for English as a Second Language (ESL) and Bilingual Education courses. But you can enjoy them as well!

The Advanced Search in Research@UWW will allow users to limit searches by language. Or, select search terms in the language you want to find. The Spanish language books in the Curriculum Collection have spine labels to make them easier to find.

If you have questions about searching for materials in other languages, contact your liaison librarian or call the Reference Desk at 262.472.1032.

¿Quiere leer usted un libro en español?
