*This chart outlines general guidelines for typical violations; however, any single violation may result in more serious sanctions depending on the severity of that specific incident. Additionally, a minor violation may result in less severe sanctions than the general guidelines.

Alcohol policy violations committed by students under the age of 21 years old will also result in notification of the student's parent(s) or legal guardian(s). Notification will occur in writing, unless the situation warrants a different method.

Disciplinary probation means that a student may remain enrolled at the university as long as the student complies with specified standards of conduct and completes all assigned disciplinary sanctions.

SIGNATURE OF ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I have reviewed the above information and understand the possible consequences of any future violations of policy. Further, I understand that it is my responsibility to clarify any questions I may have regarding policies and sanctions.
