What we provide:

Amazing teachers and staff from UW-Whitewater that teach courses in leadership designed to help build leaders in today's diverse global community.

An opportunity to know what it is like to live on a college campus, have classes in the wonderful UW-Whitewater facilities, and explore the campus.

A sense of community within our participants and help them build lasting friendships with one another.

At Inclusive Leadership Academy, Students Will:

- Hands-on activities with UWW Leadership and Career Services
- Develop critical thinking, problem solving, analytical and executive functioning skills while exploring leadership development
- Build skills around stress management
- Attend a "Going to College" Workshop
- Become college and career ready
- Learn skills and attitudes necessary for success in college and employment
- Learn employability skills and attitudes
- Learn information on college application procedures, career guidance, and financial aid options

Classes designed to strengthen leadership skills in and out of the classroom.

The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater is committed to equal opportunity in its educational programs, activities and employment policies for all persons regardless of race, color, gender, creed, religion, age, ancestry, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, political affiliation, marital status, Vietnam-era veteran status, parental status and pregnancy.
