By enrolling into this course I indicate my understanding that I may be moved to another section of the same course with a different instructor listed, based on who is assigned to supervise me in my student teaching/directed field placement. I also attest that I am enrolling in the correct number of credits, based on my licensure program plan.

This course is for MCEA student teachers only and is taught in a hybrid format with a portion of the work occurring online. Each section will meet on campus for in-person instruction for a total of four days. Students must communicate the dates and times of their seminar meetings to their cooperating teachers. Repeatable. Discussion and writing about practical issues of teaching as experienced in the full-time directed teaching semester. Incorporates presentations and panels by experienced educators as well as large- and small-group interaction to promote reflection and inform beginning teachers. This is a hybrid course which will have both classroom meetings and online instruction. Further information will be given before the first day of class.

This class will meet every other week on these six dates: 9/3, 9/17, 10/1, 10/15, 10/29, 11/12. The time of the class is approximate: some classes will be only one hour (Wheelchair Basketball Presentation). Other classes will involve field trips to destinations such as The Black Holocaust Museum, Hmong Peace Academy, The Milton House, or Madison Museums and will be half-day trips. In general, students should have Friday from 10:00-3:00 p.m. free for field trips. The instructor will add flexibility to the syllabus and provide alternate assignments if students are not able to attend 1-2 field trips. The event, destination, and date is subject to change due to the pandemic and scheduling of fall multicultural events. Feel free to contact the instructor in summer 2021 if you would like a confirmation of planned field trips."
