Terreea M Shropshire-Timmons is an attorney currently a part of the Legal counsel for Child Support for the State of Wisconsin. Prior to this she was a Guardian Ad Litem (GAL) at Children's court. In both her roles she has found different ways to fulfill one of her many passions giving back to the community. In her role as a GAL she represented the best interests of kids and advocated for their well-being and put her best effort into securing a safe environment for today's youth. As legal counsel for child support her passion and focus remains the same helping progress her community.

Dedication. Ambition. Leadership. A willingness to help driven by a genuine love for others. These are a few qualities that have shined throughout her life and her career path lighting the way for not only her but others who aspire to reach similar goals.
